Curriculum Vitae

László Kiss

He was born on 18th March, 1950 in Šahy.

The most important stages of his career:

In 1975 he graduated as a Medical Doctor at the Medical Faculty of Comenius University in Bratislava.

Between 1991 and 1994 worked as a tutor at the Department of General Medicine of the Institute of medical Doctors' Further Training.

Since 1990 he has worked as a General Practitioner in Čilizská Radvaň.

In 1998 he obtained the title of 'CSc' – the Candidate of Science.

Academic Publications:

Scientific publications: approximately 200 pieces in various medical weeklies, magazines (Orvosi Hetilap, Orvostörténeti Közlemények, Slovenský lekár, Lekárský Obzor, Medicínsky Monitor etc.) both in Slovak and Hungarian language.

Books:

"Pongrácz, Lajos – Hont megyei portré a reformkorból" -- A Portrait from the Age of Reformation about Hont County, 1994.

"Kínok tövisében – Nagy emberek – hétköznapi kórok" – In the Torture of Thorns- Famous People – Ordinary Diseases, 1997

"Doleo – ergo sum. A világirodalom nagyjainak patográfiája" - The pathography of the Greatest Representatives of the World Literature, 2001.

"Gondolatokból épült katedrális – Magyar orvosok, mérnökök, tudósok. Tudománytörténeti arcképek és tanulmányok" /társszerző/ – A Cathedral Built of Thoughts – Hungarian Physicians, Engineers, Scientists. Portraits and Studies on the History of Science (co-author), 2001

"Orvostörténeti helynevek a Felvidéken" – Place names in the Uplands Originated from the History of Medical Science , 2006.

Functions performed in public life:

Since 1997 he has been the lector of the Horus Column of the "Orvosi Hetilap", Budapest (Medical Weekly)

The member of the editorial team of "Slovenský lekár" – The Slovak Physician

The regular member of the Society of Hungarian Medical History.

2005-2006: The member of the International Scientific Committee, which was responsible for the preparation of the 40th Congress of ISHM held in Budapest.

Prizes and awards:

1984 and 1988 Medicus Universalis /Budapest/

1987 and 1993: The Markusovszky Prize by the "Orvosi Hetilap"(Medical Weekly)

2000: The Zsámboky Medal by the Hungarian Society of Medical Science

2002: The Silver Plaque given by the Vice-Premier of the Slovak Republic

2002: The honorary citizen of Plášťovce

2002: The honorary citizen of Šahy

2005: The honorary citizen of Hódmezővásárhely

The main professional interests and fields of research

The medical history of the former Uplands (Slovakia today) until 1920, place names based on medical history, pathographies (diseases of famous people), the local history of Plášťovce and Šahy.